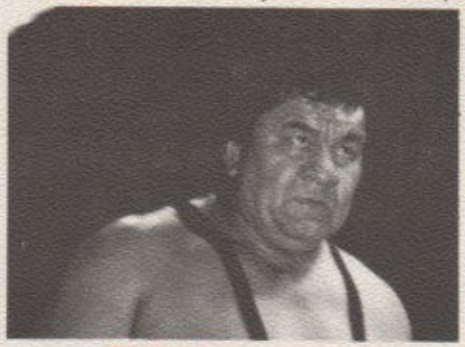
Harley Race Resumes Feud With Wahoo McDaniel

"No Disqualifications" In March 30 State Title Duel

The most coveted regional title in professional wrestling hangs in the balance when Missouri State titleholder Harley Race squares off with Wahoo McDaniel at Kiel Auditorium Friday, March 30.

Race and McDaniel are engaged in a brutal wrestling war. That violent feud has led to the insertion of a "no disqualification" clause as a special provision for the March 30 battle.

Wahoo pinned Harley in a non-title brawl February 3 at Kiel. As participants in the thrilling Battle Royal that same evening, Race and McDaniel again became involved in a wild skirmish. In a state title duel February 17, Race was disqualified for throwing McDaniel over the top rope. Under regular rules, the title cannot change hands via disqualification. Thus, Race lost the match but retained the state crown. In a bloody Indian strap match March 10, Wahoo scored his third consecutive victory over Race.



WAHOO McDANIEL

Wahoo McDaniel's three-win advantage over Harley Race gives him a surge of momentum that makes Wahoo the odds-on favorite to down Race and capture the state laurels on March 30.

Perhaps Race realizes that he is at somewhat of a disadvantage, because Harley has formed an alliance with wrestling's most famous manager, Bobby Heenan. The controversial Heenan will be in Race's corner March 30.

BOBBY HEENAN

Despite the presence of Heenan, Wahoo McDaniel looks forward to the March 30 title struggle with confident anticipation. "Harley Race might be slipping a little bit if he needs a manager," Wahoo commented, "When I come out of that ring on March 30 I'm going to have that Missouri heavyweight belt around my waist once and for all."

MISSOURI STATE CHAMPION HARLEY RACE

Harley Race of course, holds a much different perspective of the situation. He said, "I have been the dominant figure in St. Louis for more years than I care to remember. When you face me, McDaniel, you're facing the man. I am tired of being intimidated and insulted by Wahoo McDaniel. Wahoo, you're a beaten man."

The battle lines are drawn. The two sides are armed and ready to fight. The war resumes Friday, March 30. The battlefield: Kiel Auditorium. The warriors: Harley Race and Wahoo McDaniel. And to the winner goes the spoils: The most respected regional title in professional wrestling today; the Missouri State Championship.

Blackwell, Patera, Graham Clash With Lanza, Mulligan, Reed March 30

Bruce "Hacksaw" Reed returns to St. Louis to join "Black Jack" Lanza and "Black Jack" Mulligan as they oppose "Crusher" Blackwell, Ken Patera and "Crazy" Luke Graham in a six-man tag team match Friday, March 30 at Kiel Auditorium.

Lanza and Mulligan welcome the opportunity to face Blackwell and Patera in tag team competition. The Blackwell-Patera duo are the present owners of the A.W.A. tag team championship; an honor previously held by the "Black Jacks". Lanza and Mulligan are aiming for a shot at that title and a good showing against Blackwell and Patera on March 30 could move the "Black Jacks" closer to their goal. Mulligan and Lanza are eager to join Bruce Reed in the six-man tag affair, for the rugged Reed is a polished professional who has achieved superstar status in the mat world.

"BLACK JACK" MULLIGAN

"Crazy" Luke Graham should fit in well with Blackwell and Patera. In fact, Graham was Blackwell's first choice to join himself and Ken Patera for the upcoming six-man battle. Blackwell said, "When I first started wrestling, "Crazy" Luke Graham was my partner. Luke Graham helped me. So this is going to be the greatest trio you've ever seen." "Crusher" concluded, "As for Mulligan, Lanza and Reed, we're going to come in the ring, we're going to slap you around and throw you from pillar to post."

"CRUSHER" BLACKWELL

Undoubtedly, the Lanza-Mulligan-Reed trio has an opposing viewpoint regarding the upcoming tag team affair. Actions, however, speak louder than words. And action will be in abundance when "Black Jack" Lanza, "Black Jack" Mulligan and Bruce "Hacksaw" Reed collide with "Crusher" Blackwell, Ken Patera, and "Crazy" Luke Graham in a six man tag team match Friday, March 30 at Kiel.

Familiar Favorites, New Faces Add Excitement To Preliminaries

An interesting mixture of familiar favorites and exciting new faces promise to add excitement and action to the all-star St. Louis Wrestling Club slate Friday, March 30 at Kiel Auditorium.

Popular Dick "The Bruiser" returns to battle 6'-5" newcomer Cy Jurgenson.

"Hacksaw" Duggan, a wild competitor reminiscent of "King Kong" Brody, makes his local debut when he tangles with the 402-pound "One Man Gang".

U.S. Heavyweight Champion Dick Slater collides with massive "Buzz" Tyler.

DICK SLATER

"The Fabulous Ones", Steve Keirn and Stan Lane, duel ring ruffians Don White and T.G. Stone in a tag team affair. "The Fabulous Ones" were introduced to St. Louis fans via an eye-catching video presented on KDNL-TV's "All Star Wrestling".

The 7:30 PM curtain-raiser sends the dangerous masked "Grapplers" against Ted Oates and N.W.A. Junior Heavyweight Champion Les Thornton in another tag team event.

AT RINGSIDE

WITH PAT O'CONNOR

IN THE NEWS.....The hectic pace kept by the World Heavyweight Champion never lets up. Present titleholder Ric Flair has earned a reputation as a globe-trotting kingpin. The colorful Flair recently risked the gold belt in Bridgetown, Barbados..... Negotiations are underway with a number of top wrestlers to appear on the next outstanding St. Louis Wrestling Club card slated for Fri., April 13 at Kiel Auditorium. World titleholder Ric Flair is expected to sign soon to defend the crown in the April 13 main event.....When she was Jimmy Garvin's valet, "Sunshine" was jeered by wrestling fans. Since leaving Garvin, the pretty "Sunshine" has earned a loyal following of her own. She has befriended the popular Chris Adams and has accompanied him to many of his matches in Texas. "Sunshine" has expressed an interest in joining Chris on his next trip to St. Louis.

Chris Adams Debuts Against Arch-Rival Jimmy Garvin

"Gentleman" Chris Adams makes his Gateway City debut Friday, March 30 at Kiel Auditorium when he tangles with arch-nemesis "Gorgeous" Jimmy Garvin.

One of the most notable rivalries in the wrestling world is the one between Adams and Garvin.

Regular viewers of KDNL-TV's "World Class Championship Wrestling" are well aware of the deep hostilities that exist between these two talented grapplers. The Garvin-Adams feud is the talk of Texas and both wrestlers are ready to continue their battle in St. Louis when they square off at Kiel Friday, March 30.

"GORGEOUS" JIMMY GARVIN AND "PRECIOUS"

New Ticket Prices In Effect Starting With April 13 Kiel Auditorium Card

Starting with the April 13 wrestling lineup at Kiel Auditorium, a new price scale will be in effect for St. Louis Wrestling Club cards.

When the World Heavyweight Champion defends the gold belt, ticket prices will be $5, $6, $8 and $10.

For regular bills, tickets will be priced at $5, $6, $7 and $8.

In the event of price changes for special events, such changes will be made public in advance of the card.

The new price scale is forced due to rising costs in all phases of promotion. Ticket prices for St. Louis Wrestling Club cards are still a great bargain when compared with charges for other area sports events. The new rates also compare favorably with wrestling ticket prices in other major cities.

Ric Flair, Harley Race, "King Kong" Brody, Jimmy Garvin, "Black Jack" Mulligan, Ken Patera, "Crusher" Blackwell, Kimala, Barry Windham, Dick Slater and Dick "The Bruiser" are among the wrestlers who have appeared on St. Louis Wrestling Club cards in the first three months of 1984. More of this same high-caliber wrestling is promised in the future. Thus, St. Louis Wrestling Club events are your best bet for an action-packed night of affordable family fun.

Pat O'Connor Donates Time For Charity

The Miller Brewing Co., in cooperation with local radio personalities and several establishments on Laclede's Landing; sponsored a charity auction as part of the festivities on the Landing during the St. Patrick's Day weekend. All proceeds from the auction went to the Cerebral Palsy fund.

St. Louis Wrestling Club Matchmaker Pat O'Connor donated his time as celebrity auctioneer on March 16. Following a traditional corned beef and cabbage supper at Syberg's, the personable O'Connor appeared at The Showboat, Hannegan's, Harpo's and Mississippi Nights. Pat was among several local celebrities who donated their services as guest auctioneers at the Landing during the St. Pat's weekend.
